Record

November 9, 1984

Honorable William J. Casey, Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D. C. 20505

Dear Mr. Casey:

In light of election hysteria condemning "bureaucrats" as overpaid, incompetent and slothful, the William A. Jump Memorial Award is more important than ever. We need your help to assure that young Federal career workers are not discouraged but, rather, receive adequate recognition for distinguished service in public administration.

Obviously, the Federal government must retain exceptional, dedicated young career workers to serve the people properly, and so praise for exceptional service should not be underestimated.

The Jump Award is one of the most prestigious of its kind. It would, therefore, be a fitting tribute to the young people who are committed to serve their country with distinction. Previous winners of the award subsequently become Federal administrators of note.

We are certain that there must be career workers in your agency, under 37, who meet the requirements for nomination. We urge you to select one of them in accord with the details outlined in the enclosed brochure.

We are sending a copy of this letter to the heads of all Federal departments and agencies. You can be assured, however, that the Board of Trustees of the William A. Jump Memorial Foundation will make certain that all nominees receive careful, objective consideration. The winner will receive a citation and a gold key.

If your nominee is the winner, we know that it will not only boost his or her morale, but will also help to strengthen the morale of all hard-working civil servants in your agency.

Many thanks for helping the Jump Award to continue to be meaningful to the young.

Sincerely,

STAT
